Winemakers' Perspective

The warm 2022 growing season resulted in Rockpile Zinfandels with incredible depth and richness, and this, the first of our Rockpile Zins to be released from that vintage, is a perfect example. Created to honor the pioneering and persevering women throughout the generations of our family, this wine exudes finesse.

A multi-layered aromatic profile of candied blueberry, summer blackberry preserves, espresso grounds and roasted almond gives way to soft tones of magnolia blossom and sweet earthy char. The texture is effortless, balancing mountain-grown power and restraint. This wine resolves perfectly, with a persistent finish of ripe black fruits and a lovely, defining freshness.

While 12 months of patient aging will reveal additional secondary and tertiary attributes, the juicy fruit can be appreciated now and throughout the next 7+ years.
